

Hike #412

THE DEVIL'S CHAIR

From Hwy. 14 take the Hwy 138 toward Pearblossom---- go thru the town of Pearblossom as you leave the town watch for the street sign for road N 6 ---turn right on N6

when you come to a T in the road , go left,,, in a short distance you will bear right (this is still N6) at Tumbleweed Rd---turn left

Continue to the end of the road in the parking lot for the Devil's Punchbowl.

The Hike begins at the picnic area by the parking lot. there is a $3 parking fee.

At the trails end is the Devil's Chair where the views of the punchbowl are spectacular. There is a protective fence around the Devil's Chair to keep you from taking an inadvertent plunge. No matter what the devil may suggest, stay behind the fence because a trip into the Punchbowl from the chair is a one-way ticket to Hell with No return privileges. This is a fairly easy to moderate hike with ups and downs of approx. 900 ft. total hike is 7 ½ miles round trip
