Hike Date: 6/11/08

Hike Leader: Roland Bassett

Hike Location: Cheesboro Canyon

The Hike: We will do Cheesboro Canyon starting from the Cheesboro off ramp on the 101 Freeway. The hike starts at the parking lot at the end of Cheesboro Road. We will hike the road past the Baleen(sp?) Wall and then take the trail in the direction of the old sheep camp. Most of us will stop for lunch under the shade providing trees. The more ambitious ones can continue to the sheep camp (not much further). We will return to the parking lot via the canyon past the stinky sulfur springs. If it is a warm day we will at least have the shady canyon in the PM. We have our snacks in the shade of the huge oak tree at the parking lot.

Directions: Take the 101 Freeway to the Cheesboro off ramp and go north to the parking lot on the right.

Time: 9:30 as usual.
